

Pupil premium Activities

So far in this academic year 2013 /2014, pupil premium funding has paid for a number young people to be able to engage in a range of activities which link directly to their courses of study, such as:-

- Easter Animated activities club
- Visit to the new central library in Birmingham
- Residential trip to undertake dance choreography lessons with Pro Excel Dance to perform at Twickenham
- Master classes at Birmingham university
- Motivational speakers
- Routes into Law & Medicine seminars at Birmingham University / Aston University
- Theatre trip to Stratford
- Trip to the Slavery museum in Liverpool
- Drama trip to Coventry Belgrade Theatre
- Unifest summer residential program
- Apprentice Skills show at the NEC
- South and City College construction taster day
- Big Physics quiz at Birmingham university,
- The Big Bang science festival at the NEC
- Croome Court photography trip
- West Midlands Safari park reward trip

These activities not only help the students with their studying but have provided invaluable enrichment and inspirational opportunities and experiences that they may not have ordinarily have been able to undertake. With a bit of fun thrown in for good measure. The university visits in particular has often led to raised pupils aspirations and motivation levels as to what they can achieve with hard work and effort in school
